In an editorial today the New York In an editorial today the New York World says:

"In the judgment of the World the best equipped and best qualified man to succeed Woodrow Wilson as President of the United States is Herbert C. Hoover.

"We should be glad to support Mr. Hoover as the democratic candidate for President on a platform that represented the historical principles of the democratic party. We should be glad to support him as an independent candidate on a platform of progressive liberalism. We should not hesitate to support him as the republican candidate on a platform republican candidate on a platform republican tandidate on a p

NO DRASTIC STEP NEEDED RENT COMMISSION TO COMBAT INFLUENZA SWORN IN TODAY BY JUSTICE STAFFORD

Headquarters of Board May Be in Government Building at 14th and B Streets.

The rent commission of the District of Columbia was organized formally today. Capt. James F. Oyster, A. Leftwich Sinclair and Guy Mason, having received their commissions from President Wilson, presented the parchments to the District Supreme Court. The oath of office was administered by Justice Wendell P. Stafford, who congratulated the commissioners and wished them success in the very difficult task of adjusting differences between landlords and tenants.
Chief Justice McCoy had expected to swear in the commission, but was detained at home by illness. Justice Gould, the senior associate, is also ill, so the duty of qualifying the rent commission devolved on Justice Staf-ford, as the ranking justice present in the courthouse
